

Prof. Fernando Buarque nominated as Visiting Professor

Written by Administrator

Friday, 26 August 2011 19:30 -

Professor Fernando Buarque was nominated for three years to be Visiting Professor in Electric Engineering at University of Johannesburg. This will make it possible the joint supervision of students and international joint projects. Certainly, this nomination will give rise to mobility and cross-validation between graduate and postgraduate Programs of both institutions.